

Hospital Preparedness

December 2021

2500
COVID@Home
Remote Monitors

152
New Beds
(Capacity since 1 July<sup>1</sup>)

211
COVID Beds
(Surge capacity<sup>2</sup>)

75
Community
Care Beds

114
ICU
Surge Beds

367
State
Ventilators<sup>3</sup>

North West Regional Hospital

Mersey
Community Hospital

Launceston
General Hospital

Coach House
Community
Care Facility

Fountainside
Community
Care Facility

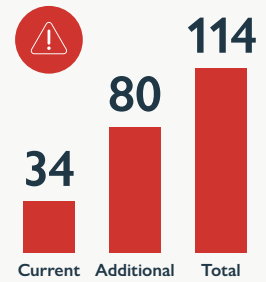

Royal Hobart
Hospital

Staffing:
840 FTE
increase since
July 2020,
with further recruitment underway

Tasmanian
ICU Bed Surge
Capacity

PPE:

N95/P2
masks..... 3.7M
Surgical masks..... 6.3M
Hand
sanitizer.. 54 000L
Gowns..... 2M
Gloves .....20M
Face
shields..... 82 000

<sup>1</sup> New bed capacity includes 35 contracted Private beds. Tasmania has 655 acute medical beds and a total of 1583 physical beds.

<sup>2</sup> COVID surge capacity (non-ICU) as triggered under Major Hospital Escalation Management Plans (South, North, North West).

<sup>3</sup> 267 ventilators are already available, with 100 ventilators to be supplied via Commonwealth contract.